

ELF ON THE SHELF LETTER

Dear Child,

I am your Elf on the Shelf, sent from the North Pole to watch over you during the Christmas season.

My purpose is to report to Santa Claus about your behavior to help him decide if you are on the Nice or Naughty list.

I will be watching closely every day, so be sure to be kind, helpful, and respectful.

Please remember, I do not speak or move while anyone is watching me. But I will move to a new spot each night to keep the magic alive.

If you find me, please do not touch me or try to take me with you, as I need to return to the North Pole each night.

Together, we will make this holiday season special and full of joy.

Yours magically,

Your Elf on the Shelf

Responsibilities of the Child:

1. Be kind and helpful to family, friends, and pets.
2. Listen to your parents and follow house rules.
3. Take good care of your belongings and your Elf.
4. Use good manners, say please and thank you.
5. Share and care for others, especially during the Christmas season.

Elf's Role and Limits:

The Elf on the Shelf is a magical scout that reports to Santa Claus nightly. This means the Elf cannot speak, move, or interact with others while being observed. The Elf must remain in its designated place and be treated with respect. The Elf is not a toy and should not be taken from the home or handled unnecessarily, or it may lose its magic and be unable to return to the North Pole. The Elf will return to its spot every night after reporting.

Privacy and Data Protection:

Any observations made by the Elf on the Shelf regarding your behavior are confidential and intended solely for the purpose of assisting Santa Claus in making decisions consistent with the Christmas tradition. These observations will not be shared with third parties. The privacy and wellbeing of your family are respected and protected in accordance with applicable Australian privacy laws.

Legal Compliance and Enforcement:

This Letter is a representation of the magical Christmas tradition and is intended to be a positive and fun way to encourage good behavior. It is not a legally binding contract and does not create legal obligations or rights. However, this Letter is designed with respect to Australian law and aims to support family values, respect for privacy, and goodwill between all parties involved.

Acceptance:

By reading this Letter, you accept the magical presence of the Elf on the Shelf and agree to do your best to be kind, respectful, and helpful throughout the Christmas season. Remember, the true magic of Christmas comes from love, family, and the joy of giving.
