

OLD LETTER

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter serves as a formal declaration and acknowledgment relating to the matters described herein. The undersigned affirms that the statements contained within this document are true, accurate, and complete to the best of their knowledge and belief, and are prepared to be legally binding under the jurisdiction of Australia.

1. Identification of Parties:

The parties involved in this agreement include the sender, hereinafter referred to as the 'Declarant', and the recipient, hereinafter referred to as the 'Addressee'. Both parties acknowledge the receipt and understanding of the terms within this Old Letter.

2. Purpose of the Letter:

The purpose of this letter is to formally memorialize certain facts, assertions, or intentions relevant to prior communications, events, or agreements. This document shall serve as evidence of such matters and may be used in legal proceedings if necessary.

3. Acknowledgment of Facts:

The Declarant acknowledges the accuracy of the following facts and statements, and confirms that these have been verified and concurred with by all relevant parties. Any discrepancies or disputes should be raised promptly and handled according to applicable Australian law.

- a) The events referenced herein occurred as described in prior correspondence.
- b) Any property, rights, or obligations mentioned are held and transferred in accordance with legal requirements.
- c) All parties have had the opportunity to seek independent legal advice.
- d) This letter is not intended to replace or override any formal contract or agreement unless explicitly stated.

4. Legal Effect and Enforceability:

This Old Letter is executed with the intention of creating a legally binding document under the laws of Australia. It shall be enforceable in the courts of the Commonwealth of Australia and shall comply with all relevant statutes, regulations, and common law principles.

5. Confidentiality:

The contents of this letter shall be treated as confidential and shall not be disclosed to any third parties without the prior written consent of the Declarant, unless required by law or regulation.

6. Governing Law and Jurisdiction:

This letter and any dispute arising out of or in connection with it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Australia. The parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of relevant Australian states and territories.

7. Representations and Warranties:

The Declarant represents and warrants that all statements herein are truthful and that they have the authority to make such declarations. Misrepresentation may give rise to legal consequences including damages or rescission.

8. Severability:

If any provision of this letter is found to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, such provision shall be severed and the remainder of this letter shall remain in full force and effect.

9. Entire Agreement:

This letter constitutes the entire agreement between the parties regarding its subject matter and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, or communications, whether oral or written.
